Exercise-01: Pre-Reading Questions	41
1. “Discipline is the bridge between goals and accomplishments.” (Harvey Mackay) This means discipline is the connection between what we want and what we finally achieve. Everyone has goals, like passing exams, getting a good job, or being healthy. But only those who work regularly, follow rules, and stay focused can reach their goals. For example, if a student wants high marks, discipline in study is the bridge that helps him reach success.	41
2. “Self-discipline is the key to personal greatness.” This means that real strength comes from controlling ourselves. Self-discipline means waking up on time, studying daily, avoiding laziness, and not giving up. If a person can control his actions and habits, he can become great in life. For example, an athlete who practices daily, even when tired, becomes strong and successful because of self-discipline.	41
3. “The difference between the successful and the unsuccessful is discipline.” (Ed Mylett) This means that discipline is the main thing that separates winners from losers. Talent and dreams are not enough. A disciplined person keeps working hard even when life is difficult, but an undisciplined person wastes time and misses chances. For example, two students may be equally intelligent, but the one with discipline in study and time management will succeed more.	41
